DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Anderson et al.'200 (Anderson). Anderson discloses a system capable of being employed for processing loan applications (column 8, line 66 to column 9, line 60), the system comprising a web site (as seen in figure 3) adaptable for receiving mortgage loan application data, an internal system (figure 4) having a database 92 and a computer 90 and means for harnessing the web site so that a user can access the internal system (reference numeral 65, as seen in figure 3).
